

Event Proposal

Saturday, December 9th
Battle of the Orgs: Student Senate Dodgeball Tournament

WHO:

Hassan Ezzeddine, Huda Syed, Gabe Shamam, Rabika Ali, Amulen Rozmus, and Charlie Roungny as members of the Community Affairs project group, and in association with Mort Harris Recreation & Fitness Center

WHAT:

We'll be hosting a competitive dodgeball tournament made up of max. 16 teams (consisting of 8-10 players) comprised of student organizations; the tournament will progress with a round-robin format and will be officiated by participating senators and IM staff.

Winners will receive Student Senate fanny packs.

WHY:

We need this event to continue our mission of fostering community on Wayne State's campus. There are over 600 student-run organizations registered on Get Involved, many of which have never interacted with another org. The "Battle of the Orgs" will create a unique opportunity for students to get to know one another, the senators, and a university resource: Mort Harris.

WHEN:

12:00-3:00 PM, Saturday, December 9th
Mort Harris Recreation & Fitness Center, second floor basketball courts

NEED HELP?

Student senators are expected to promote this event and are encouraged to attend and participate in it. LET YOUR ORGS KNOW!

Reservation Information

WHERE:

Mort Harris Recreation & Fitness Center, second floor basketball courts

WHEN:

12:00-3:00 PM, Saturday, December 9th

PEOPLE COUNT:

160 participants maximum

Event Proposal

SET UP OF SPACE:

Both courts will be used to run two games simultaneously. Teams not currently playing can hang out by the court lounges or watch from the track above.

AMMENITIES:

Mort Harris' Intramural equipment will be used, including their dodgeball materials.

REFRESHMENTS:

There will be no refreshments, participants are encouraged to bring water.