Resolution 2324-02

A resolution to implement accommodations as university policy to uplift the religious celebration of Diwali, Eid al-Adha, Eid al-Fitr, Lunar New Year, Vaisakhi, Rosh Hashanah, Orthodox Easter and Yom Kippur for those celebrating at Wayne State University.

SPONSOR: Zaynah Jadallah (Member at Large)

WHEREAS, Wayne State University demonstrates a commitment to efforts of diversity and inclusion through the implementation of strategies related to the plan for diversity and inclusion, ideas woven into our mission and our strategic plan, AND

WHEREAS, The Wayne State University Student Senate seeks to “ensure accurate representation and inclusivity in the decisions made on behalf of our peers. By bridging the gap between students, faculty, staff, and administration, we aim to uplift and encompass the complexities and diversity of the university”<sup>1</sup> AND

WHEREAS, these communities on campus have historically raised a concern that there is a lack of official recognition of their holidays, resulting in missing class or not being able to observe these holidays, AND

WHEREAS, the lack of documentation and recognition of religious holidays on campus further illustrates the severity of the issue and disempowerment of students who practice religious holidays, AND

WHEREAS, the ability to collectively identify religious students is illegal; “The U.S. Census Bureau does not collect data on religious affiliation in its demographic surveys or decennial census. Public Law 94-521 prohibits us from asking a question on religious affiliation on a mandatory basis”<sup>2</sup> AND

WHEREAS, “LANSING, Mich — The Michigan House of Representatives passed a package of bills this week that would formally acknowledge diverse cultures and religions that many Michiganders celebrate. The legislation would establish Diwali, Eid
